

A DAY LOOKING EXTRAORDINARILY DIFFERENT

Bali, September 11, 2005... A select list of players from Wismilak International Bali spent the Sunday in a very unusual and memorable afternoon, by taking off the casual and sporty tennis outfits and exchanging them with elegant evening attire. Patty Schyder, Alicia Molik and Sania Mirza changed professions for an afternoon, as they were transformed into “photo models” for a photo session with Milan Cacic. The photo sessions were a part of the off court activities during the week long tennis tournament at Grand Hyatt Bali.

Patty, Alicia and Sania looked stunningly elegant in chic-simple evening gowns with high heels instead of the normal tennis shoes. A total successful makeover... Alicia, dressed in a elegant black sparkling beaded dress posed close to a traditional Balinese table located at the Grand Ballroom of Grand Hyatt Bali and various other location. Other various poses were taken creating a port folio of international tennis players in evening attire. Patty and Sania took the opportunity to do photos amidst the lush gardens of the hotel. This session created a memorable event for the ladies to cherish during their participation in South East Asia’s biggest tennis tournament.

*Since its debut in 1994, the Wismilak International, part of the worldwide Sony Ericsson WTA Tour, has been held in Surabaya, Kuala Lumpur, and now Bali. Initially the event was named the “Wismilak Open”, before changing it's name to the “Wismilak International” in 1996 as a reflection of the organiser’s corporate expansion into the international market. The Wismilak International is still the largest tournament in the WTA’s calendar in South East Asia.
